Glenn was left to clear up on his own. - Make sure all jobs allocated before event takes place. - Christmas Fayre – 29 November. Well attended despite poor weather. Puddings and chutneys did well. All calendars sold and additional copies run on photocopier. Only 3 Bramley teddies remain unsold. Some very good raffle prizes. Good quality melamine products. Glenn thanked everyone involved in the very successful Christmas Fayre – particularly with regard to those who remained to help clear up. - Thank you letters to go out to raffle contributors. - Next year – need to consider timing for advertising in local press. - Glenn thanked all those who helped with all the Christmas events. 	ALL SF GP
